

This side will be glued down to a lapbook or an interactive notebook page.

Instructions:

The top page needs cut around the dark lines that surrounds the titles of the feudal folks. Those will act as lift tabs. The summaries or notes probably should be written first before assembling, but when ready, glue around the edges of the top fold to the bottom fold so that all that opens are the tabs.

Information can be gathered at http://www.historyonthenet.com/Medieval_Life/feudalism.htm

A rectangular box containing five horizontal dashed lines for writing practice.

A rectangular box containing five horizontal dashed lines for writing practice.

A rectangular box containing five horizontal dashed lines for writing practice.

A rectangular box containing five horizontal dashed lines for writing practice.