Name: ______________________________________ Date: _____________________________________

Culture: ______________________________________ Artist: ____________________________________

Name and Time frame of piece: _______________________________ Medium used for the sculpture?
__________________________________________________________________________________________

Does the sculpture look living?  Why or why not? ______________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________

Was the sculpture painted at one time or is painted now?  How did or does that affect the piece?
__________________________________________________________________________________________

Why was the piece created? ________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________

How large is the piece?  How does this affect the piece? ________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________

Has the sculpture been carved into the medium, carved out of the medium, or created as a relief? How does that affect the piece? __________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________

What is unique about the piece?  Does the sculpture show a love for humanity or more of a modest approach?  What does this tell us about their relationship with God or their gods? __________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________

Does the artwork present an historical event or a religious practice?  Is the piece true to fact or exaggerated to make a point?  What does the artist seem to be telling you? _______________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________

What do you think about the sculpture? _____________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________________