

We are currently studying the book English From the Roots Up by Joegil Lindquist. I highly recommend this book! The following are game boards I have designed to drill what we are learning in this book.

Greek Root Jeopardy

POTOS (light)	GRAPH (to write or draw)	TELE (far away, distant)	METRON (measure)	TROPOS (turning)
100	100	100	100	100
Turning toward light.	Drawing made on stone.	Light from far away.	Measurement of the earth.	The climate of the earth in the tropics.
200	200	200	200	200
Light from far away.	Written symbol for sound.	Sound from far away	Measuring the same.	Turning toward light as leaves and flowers do.
300	300	300	300	300
Fear or dislike of light.	To write one's own name.	Devise for seeing distant things.	Measuring across.	Plants or trees which like a change of turning of seasons.
400	400	400	400	400
Love of light	Writing from far away.	Knowing how someone far away is feeling.	Measuring heat.	Turning toward heat.
500	500	500	500	500
Picture drawn by light.	Black carbon used for drawing or writing.	Device for looking at distant objects.	Measures wind speed.	A flower named for its tendency to turn toward the sun.