

A Loyal Christian

1. Are you loyal to Christ, giving witness to others of His lordship in your life?
2. Are you loyal when you shouldn't be, siding with the sinful opinions and actions of siblings and friends, or do you stand up for what you know is right regardless of what others think?
3. Are you willing, because you love your friend, to humbly point out sin in her life?
4. Are you willing to work out things when you have been misunderstood?
5. Are you easily offended?
6. Do you encourage others to turn against a friend when they have wronged you?
7. Are you willing to forgive when you have been wronged?
8. Do you stand alongside friends and siblings, encouraging and counseling them when things are difficult?
9. Do you show respect for the feelings and opinions of your friends and siblings? Are you careful with your words when you disagree with them?

A Loyal Christian page 2

10. Are you a trustworthy friend? Will you guard a confidence, or do you gossip and slander?

11. Do you criticize your friends to others?

12. Do you turn against your friends when they hurt or disagree with you?

13. Do you value the honest reproof of a friend or family member?

14. Are you ever unkind or disloyal to a friend to impress or gain the approval of someone else?

15. Do you rejoice when friends prosper, or are you jealous and envious?

16. Do you allow your friends freedom for other friendships, or are you possessive and jealous?

A Loyal Christian page 3

17. Does your loyalty to friends lead you to be cliquish, unkindly excluding or mocking others outside your "group"?

18. Are you loyal to your leadership and to your family's goals?

19. Do you respect your parents in front of your friends?

20. Are you being loyal to your future spouse now by refraining from having emotional relationships or feelings with other the opposite sex now?

21. Do you view marriage as a lifetime commitment?