

Three Religions Extending from Abraham

Christianity, Judaism, and Islam are three religions that all claim Abraham as their Father of Faith and all claim to follow the one true God. These religions were very influential during the Middle Ages. On the following statements below, mark each blank with the religion the statement would be true of. Use J for Judaism, C for Christianity, and I for Islam. If the statement is true for more than one of these religions, place each letter in the blank that the statement would be true of.

1. _____ Moses accepted the ten Commandments for this religion.
2. _____ Their teachings ask the followers to help the poor and needy.
3. _____ The people who accept this faith are called Muslims.
4. _____ Their book of wisdom and law is called the Torah.
5. _____ Their places of worship are called mosques.
6. _____ Their places of worship are called synagogues.
7. _____ Their places of worship are called churches.
8. _____ Their book of religious teaching is called the Bible.
9. _____ This religion calls God, Allah.
10. _____ The followers believe in God.
11. _____ The early followers of this religion were called Disciples.
12. _____ Their religious teachings and traditions are found in a book called the Talmud.
13. _____ Their book of religious teaching is the Bible.
14. _____ Their teachings are found in a book called the Koran.
15. _____ The followers believe in the teaching of Jesus.
16. _____ Their great religious leader is Mohammed.
17. _____ The followers are asked to pray five times a day facing Mecca.

Star of David
Symbol of Judaism

Cross
Symbol of Christianity

Crescent and Star
Symbol of Islam

Three Religions Extending from Abraham

Answer Key

Christianity, Judaism, and Islam are three religions that all claim Abraham as their Father of Faith and all claim to follow the one true God. These religions were very influential during the Middle Ages. On the following statements below, mark each blank with the religion the statement would be true of. Use J for Judaism, C for Christianity, and I for Islam. If the statement is true for more than one of these religions, place each letter in the blank that the statement would be true of.

1. J Moses accepted the ten Commandments for this religion.
2. J, C, I Their teachings ask the followers to help the poor and needy.
3. I The people who accept this faith are called Muslims.
4. J Their book of wisdom and law is called the Torah.
5. I Their places of worship are called mosques.
6. J Their places of worship are called synagogues.
7. C Their places of worship are called churches.
8. C Their book of religious teaching is called the Bible.
9. I This religion calls God, Allah.
10. J, C, I The followers believe in God.
11. C The early followers of this religion were called Disciples.
12. J Their religious teachings and traditions are found in a book called the Talmud.
13. I Their teachings are found in a book called the Koran.
14. C The followers believe in the teaching of Jesus.
15. I Their great religious leader is Mohammed.
16. I The followers are asked to pray five times a day facing Mecca.