Roman Republic

- Consults (2)
  - Head government, act as commanders-in-chief.
  - Become senators at the end of term.

- Senators (300)
  - Supervise government matters, especially military and foreign affairs.
  - Serve for life.

- Censors (2)
  - Supervise citizens, set taxes, appoint senators.
  - Usually chosen from former consuls for 18 months.

- Tribunes (10)
  - Guard rights of plebeians.
  - Can veto senators and other officials.
  - Serve for one year.

- Praetors (16)
  - Head Senate or assembly in consuls' absence.
  - Act as high judges.
  - Serve for two years.

- Quaestors (8)
  - Act as treasurers.
  - Serve for one year.

- Military Assembly
  - Pass laws, elect officials, declare wars.
  - Made up of patricians and plebeians.

- Civil Assembly
  - Pass laws, elect officials, declare wars.
  - Made up of plebeians.